

- Los Angeles Korean Festival – Held in the fall of every year. The four-day festival promotes Korean and Korean American businesses, culture and arts. The Festival culminates with a parade on Olympic Blvd.
- The Korean BBQ Cook-Off brings the top Korean BBQ restaurants in Los Angeles to showcase their best BBQ dishes to the public. It is an annual event organized by the Korean American Coalition \(KAC\) to promote Korean cuisine and culture to all communities in the greater Los Angeles area.
- Korean Music Festival – not quite in Koreatown, but hosted by Korea Times, the annual event is held at the Hollywood Bowl and features popular top tier artists from Korea.